About membership

- Organisations, but not individuals, can be members of the NSW ACT Alcohol Policy Alliance.
- Participation in the Alliance is not intended to replace or interfere with member organisations individual work in relation to alcohol.
- The Alliance will not constrain members' activities in any way, other than with respect to conditions noted below.
- Members will have no direct financial relationship with the alcohol industry or any of its organisations and the alcohol industry shall have no role in policy development within member organisations.
- The Alliance will work in partnership with state and local government; however state and local governments will not be members of the Alliance.
- The Alliance encourages member organisations to be involved in the National Alliance on Action for Alcohol (NAAA).

What is required of member organisations?

Member organisations will be consulted in developing priority areas for action and position statements. Following this, member organisations will assist to identify how we can all work together to achieve these objectives both as an Alliance and through our own organisations.

It is acknowledged that member organisations will vary in their capacity for activity in regard to the Alliance. Member organisations are welcome to participate to the extent they are able.

Participation in the Alliance is not intended to replace or interfere with organisations' individual work in relation to alcohol.

Member organisations may be called on for media comment on relevant topics. This may be planned or, in the case of opportunistic activity, may require urgent response. Media activity will be coordinated by the Alliance Secretariat. If individual organisations feel that the media request is not relevant to their organisation's priorities, they are able to decline media opportunities.

Secretariat support will be provided by the Foundation for Alcohol Research and Education.

Contact will mainly occur via email and phone. However there will be opportunities to meet face-to-face periodically.
